TWENTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS. SECOND SESSION.

In Sonato,

WARMINGTON, Wednesday, Jan. 15, 1845.

The Chair presented a communication from the Trensury Department, exhibiting the condition of the custom-house at New Orleans.

Mr. Morkmenad corrected a mis-statement of his speech of yesterday, as published in the Globe Mr. Bayand presented a petition from surgeons and assistant surgeons in the navy for assimilated rank.

nnd against the annexation of Texas.

Mr. Dayron presented a petition from Philadelphia against the annexation of Texas.

Mr. Marrica presented a petition from Bradford county, Pa., for an abatement of the tranking privilege and reduction of the rates of postage. Also, a like memorial from Adams county Laid on the table, there being a bill before the Senate corresponding with the prayer of the retitioners. nding with the prayer of the petitioners.

OBEGON. Mr. ALLEN arose, and said that three or four weeks ago a resolution which he had offered had been adopted, calling upon the President, if not incompatible with the public interest, for all the offi-ial correspondence between the United States and Great Britain since March 4, 1841, in reference to the territory of Oregon He asked now of the Chair, whether, in answer to this resolution, any communication had been received from the Executive?

and Great Britain since March 4, 1941, interference to the territory of Oregon. He asked now of the Chair, whether, in answer to this resolution, any communication had been received from the Executive ?

Mr. Ancher replied, that he arose only to say no such communication had as yet been received As chairman of the Committee of Foreign Relations, he (Mr. Archer) would, of course, have been apprised of it if such answer had been communicated. However, he would say, for the satisfaction of the Senator, that the result of the attempted negotiations might be expected in a few days.

Mr. Allen next presented the proceedings of a public meeting, and a petition from citzens of Fairfield county, Ohio, praying Congress to extend the territorial authority of the United States over the territory of Oregon. In presenting this memorial, Mr. Allen took occasion to remind the Senate of the importance of this question of our title to, and jurisdection over Oregon, and recapitulated the unfavorable history of preceding negotiations, and of preceding legislation upon the question, protesting against this trifling any longer. The farmers were now taking the matter in hand and urging upon Congress their wishes upon this important question of the extension of our protection to the soil and people of Oregon. If Great Britain trifled with our government, it was not authority for our government to trifle thus with the claims of our own people. It was the policy of Great Britain to prolong this controversy—her object was to strengthen her pretensions from delay. The petition was referred to the select committee on the subject, of which Mr. Atchison is chairman.

Mr. Woodbridge presented the petition of certain ship-masters of Chicago, Ill., for the erection of a break-water at that port.

Mr. Merrick, from the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads, reported back, without amendment, the House resolution authorizing the Postmaster General to employ railroad companies for the transportation of the mail in ocean-steamere, with amendments

MND YET ANOYMEA.

MND DELLERY, of Alabama, asked leave to report a bill providing for the admission of Texas, as a new State, into the Union. (Laughter, and cries of "Read! Read! Read!") The bill is substantially the same as that of Mr. Mitton Brown, and Mr. Foster, of Tenn., in its leading features It provide—I. That a new State from the right-ful territory of Texas shall be admitted into the Union, having a republican constitutional form of government. 2 That the constitution framed for the new tate shall be submitted to the President on or before the first day of January, 1846. 3. That two States may be subsequently admitted with or without slavery, as the people may desire. 4. That the President may provide for the sattlement of boundaries with all foreign countries. 5 That Texas shall cale all her government property mines, minerals, salt-lakes, &c., t. t. w. United States; and her Public lands for the payment of the debts, the residue to be surrendered to the State. 6. That the State Ceutrs shall settle conflicting land titles under the constitutional jurisdiction of the United States. 7. That the State Geutrs shall settle conflicting land titles under the constitutional surborities of Texas shall have assented to the foregoing provisions shall be entitled to two Senators as two Representatives in Congress. 8 That when the constitutional authorities of Texas shall have assented to the foregoing provisions, they shall be deemed the lundamental compact of annexation. Debts of Texas not to be assumed "Chase, from the reading as understood, are the easuer of the sing taken thereon, the rules was called, in order to the introduction of the bill; and the years and nays being taken thereon, the rules were surpended—130 to 72. The bill was then read twice and referred to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union.

Annixation.

The subject being again resumed, n Committee, from yesterday. (Mr. Hopkins in the Cheir.)

Mr. Bowlin, of Mo., being entitled to the fibor, delivered an energetic and powerful appeal to behelf of annexation; on the several general issues of the constitutional power of the government in the premises; the constitutional authority of Texas as a nation to become a party in the compact; the military advantages of annexation in its commercial relations towards England and this Republic of the Federal Union. After examining and clearing away the impediments thrown around these several issues, Mr. B. concluded by declaring that though he was somewhat putial to several plans presented, he was in favor of any plan by which the annexation could be honorably effected.

Mr. Ha our said that the different gentlemen who had argued this question had exhibited it in its strongest aspects in which it had presented itself to their minds. He should take the same privilege. He expressed his opposition to all the plans presented for the annexation, and then proceeded to their specification of his objections.—First, as to the assumption of her debts. Upon this point Mr. Hardin exhibited the resources and liabilities of Texas, na most discouraging concest. A large portion of the territory was included in the great American desert, a portion of which some gentlemen proposed to cut off into a couple of Sease. The good lands of Texas were covered over with claims, and her debts were enormous. Mr H passed to the general objections of unconstitutionality and inexpediency, and having floished his sixty minutes.

Dear Sin:—

Herewith I send you the amounts paid into the State treasury by the auctioneers of Philadelphia, for the year ending 1st December, 1844. It has been customary to publish these returns quarterly. I have prepared this statement from the returns of the four consecutive quarters ending with the month of Nevember last. Domestic goods as well as foreign are subject to a duty in the state of Pennsylvania of 1½ per cent. The first clars of auctioneers are required to pay into the state treasury $2000 per annum as a license to transact business. Trade is lagging with us at present, but a strong desire is manifes on the part of buyers to see the hommer in operation—before which they are not disposed to make any purchases—no disposition to speculate in dry goods, as was the case last year at this time. The money market being tight, no advance in the price of goods is anticipated, even if the importations should be light. The stocks in the hands of commission agents, importers and jebbers are small. Quite a number of new firms go into operation this spring, which will add much to the competition.

Yours, &c.

FUNERAL PROCESSION OF THE ODD FELLOWS.—Yesterday, at 2 o'clock, P. M., a grand funeral procession of the Odd Fellows followed to the grave the melancholy remains of Paul Roux, who was murdered on Sunday night at a tave n in Charles street. The scene was very imposing, and the honor thus paid to the deceased, will, no doubt, be very gratifying to his distant friends. The procession left the Odd Fellows' Hall, in Gay street, about two o'clock, and after proceeding up Baltimore street, took up the line of march for Green Mount Cemetery, where the body was placed in the vault to await the orders of the friends of the deceased. The procession, with banners, music, and all the insignia of the order, extended several equares, and was both affecting and solemn. In the sable hearse was the body of a man, who came to this city, perhaps, with money, to purchase here or elsewhere goods, by which he ho, ed to realize profit. His ambition, perhaps, was fixed on fortune. He was, perhaps, dreaming of future wealth, when the black hearted murderer struck him with the axe, and suddenly put an end to his visions and to his life. The Odd Fellows have done bonor to the finer feelings of humanity by thus paying respect and attention to a departed stranger. Alas! what a tale of sorrow will this circumstance carry to the hearts of those he left at home. How unexpected the sad catastrophe. Poor man! Requirecat in pace.—Balt. Sun, Jan. 14.

STEAMBOATS LOST —The steamboat St. Charles was snagged on the 3d instant, in the Mississippi, about one hundred miles above Memphis. Boat sunk, and the cargo lost. The St. Charles was from New Orleans bound to Nashville.

The steamer Narragansett was sunk at Dog Tooth Rend, in the upper Mississippi, on the 5th instant. Boat and cargo a total loss. No lives lost.

The Nashville papers state that the St. Charles was owned by Yeatman & Armistead of that city, and was insured at Pittsburg for $11,500. The cargo was insured at Nashville.

The Mexican Minister, Gen. Almonte, arrived in Baltimore yesterday from New York. He took lodgings at Barnum's, and leaves this morning for Washington.
